Buyers seeking acreage living without isolation should explore this amazing opportunity to purchase an existing house on 2.89 hectares that could be renovated into something truly special, or could be knocked down to make way for your dream home!

The existing house is double storey and showcases expansive ocean views; complete with three bedrooms, two bathrooms, large timber deck facing the view, and two car accommodation - there is clear potential to transform into a stunning acreage home, building on and improving on what is already here.

Most of the seven acres cares for itself, with surprisingly little maintenance needed, so you can benefit from the
