The owners have changed tact with this sale as they want this property sold within 2 weeks. Now is the time to visit this property as it is going to be sold and it could be yours. It is a terrific property and will be the buy of the year. Read the description below and call now for a viewing. I can not stress enough, now really is the time!

Situated on a 752sqm block and full of character, this lakeside property enjoys the company of just two neighbours. A very private and well maintained house, the owners have put a lot of love into its perfectly manicured gardens and interior over the years.

Westlake Court is a no through road and regarded as the best street in Sippy Downs due to its lack of traffic flow and
