Amber Werchon Property presents to the market 31 THRUSHS ROAD DULONG.

This parklike property is perched high on the northern slopes of Dulong, drinking in views across rolling farmlands and all the way to Noosa National Park and the Pacific Ocean.

The 5675 square metres of fertile land is planted with tropical trees and shrubs, fruit trees and garden beds with two dams providing more than enough water for the flowers.

With room enough for a large family and their pets, this house and land are so private, the road is so quiet and the land large enough for the most ardent gardener. There are already some unique palms and productive fruit trees
